

ANNOUNCEMENTS

International Colloquium on Bioenergetics

A Colloquium on Bioenergetics will be held in Pugnochiuso, near Bari, Italy, on September 11–14, 1970, that is immediately following the 8th International Congress of Biochemistry to be held in Switzerland on September 3–9, 1970. There will be a number of invited speakers. In addition, participation by application will be possible. The address of the Secretariat is:

Istituto di Chimica Biologica
Universita degli Studi di Bari
Via Amendola 165/A
Bari, Italy

New Journal—Use of Computers in Biology and Medicine

Robert S. Ledley, Editor-in-Chief, informs the members of the Biophysical Society of the establishment of a new journal, Use of Computers in Biology And Medicine. The purpose of this journal is to meet the demand for a medium of international communication on the revolutionary advances being made in the application of the computer to the fields of medicine and bioscience. The Journal will be published quarterly by Pergamon Press. Special arrangements have been made for members of the Biophysical Society to receive the Journal at the reduced rate of $7 per year. (Otherwise, the subscription rate is $25 per year.)

The members of the Editorial Board include J. T. Apter, C. A. Caceres, D. E. Clark, M. Clynes, M. O. Dayhoff, R. A. Dunn, M. F. Eisenberg, H. H. Gee, W. G. Harless, F. Heinmets, C. Hirsch, A. Kagan, G. A. Kien, H. D. Landahl, J. H. Milsu, R. Moore, H. J. Morowitz, A. C. T. North, M. L. Pavel, F. H. Ruddle, D. Rutovitz, B. Solow, and L. Stark.

Any member of the Society interested in obtaining a subscription at the reduced rate should send his check to

Pergamon Press
Journals Department
Maxwell House, Fairview Park
Elmsford, New York 10523

stating that he is a member of the Biophysical Society.