

ANNOUNCEMENTS

International Organization for Pure and Applied Biophysics

The IOPAB will organize the Second International Biophysics Congress in Vienna, Austria, 5 through 9 September 1966. General sessions of invited papers will be devoted to energy transfer and conversion, to molecular aspects of differentiation, and to emerging developments in biophysics. Speakers and chairmen will include: M. Kasha, Th. Förster, A. N. Terenin, S. P. McGlynn, G. Weber, W. Beermann, H. E. Huxley, and G. Wyman. There will also be symposia arranged by the Commissions on:

Molecular Biophysics
Cell and Membrane Biophysics
Communication and Control Processes
Radiation Biophysics

by the Committee on Education, and by affiliated commissions of the IOPAB. Speakers and chairmen will include: M. H. F. Wilkins, D. C. Phillips, D. M. Blow, J. B. Finean, A. Katchalsky, N. A. Walker, J. M. Ritchie, W. Rosenblith, W. A. Reichardt, T. N. Wiesel, and W. A. H. Rushton.

Contributed papers on all subjects of biophysics will be accepted. Abstracts of such papers will be due by 15 May 1966.

Inquiries should be directed as follows:

From Diagnosis to Therapy

This thought-provoking title is the theme of the 1966 San Diego Symposium for Biomedical Engineering. The 4 day symposium, now in its 6th consecutive year, will be held in San Diego, California, 6 through 9 June 1966. Topics to be explored in both tutorial and state-of-the-art papers are:

Microanalytic Diagnostic Techniques (in vitro)
Macroanalytic Diagnostic Techniques (in vivo)
Therapeutic Effects of Extreme Environments
Prosthetics, Artificial vs. Transplanted

The symposium will be cosponsored by:

American Nuclear Society
California Western University
Human Factors Society

IEEE, San Diego Section
IEEE, San Diego Biomedical Engineering Group
IEEE, San Diego Electronic Computers Group
Institute of Comparative Biology
Salk Institute for Biological Studies
San Diego Bioastronautics Section, AIAA
San Diego Biomedical Research Institute
San Diego County Heart Association
San Diego State College
Scripps Clinic and Research Foundation
Simulation Councils, Inc.
Society of Nuclear Medicine, Southern California Chapter
United States Navy Electronics Laboratory
United States Naval Hospital at San Diego
University of California at San Diego

Captain Fred George, M.D., MC USN, United States Naval Hospital at San Diego, will serve as Program Chairman. Captain George should be contacted on all questions concerning submission of papers.
